

Bahamas International Securities Exchange

The Bahamas International Securities Exchange Limited (BISX) wishes to notify the public that due to the material items being voted on at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of ICD Utilities, to be held 8 November 2017, trading in ICD Utilities Limited (ICD) will be suspended at the issuer's request to allow for the full and orderly release of the results of the AGM to the investing public. As a result, effective 10 a.m. Thursday 9 November 2017, ICD shares will not be available for trading over BISX until further notice. We expect trading to resume once all material information has been released to the public.
